Will be celebrated February 4-5

FOR THESE WE PRAY

- During this time, please recognize those in religious communities who serve in the various ministries in the Diocese of Lubbock. Let's pray for the men and women consecrated to God by the vows of chastity, poverty and obedience that they may seek to live their baptismal promise more intensely, have the grace to persevere in their commitment to the Lord, and serve with open hearts and willing spirits.

Living Hope

Christians anchor their hope in the solid rock of Jesus Christ. His words are always true and His promises are never broken. I'll sometimes hear a person project his or her unfulfilled desires on God and then argue that He came up short. But believers who make a request and submit to God's will always get an answer: yes, no, or wait.
